

UNCG Gerontology Research Network “Lunch & Learn”

UNCG GERONTOLOGY
RESEARCH NETWORK

*Facilitating transdisciplinary
aging-related research at UNCG.*

A Day in the Life: Managing Well·Spring & New Cooperative Opportunities with UNCG

Wednesday • November 13, 2013
11:45 a.m.—1:00 p.m.
UNCG • Stone Building
Edwards Lounge

Steve Fleming, President and CEO of Well·Spring Life Care Retirement Community, shares his unique experiences in retirement community administration. Fleming also highlights new collaborative and research opportunities between Well·Spring and our UNCG faculty and students.

Please bring your own lunch to enjoy during the presentation.

To attend, RSVP to gerontology@uncg.edu or 336-256-1020.

For more information about the UNCG
Gerontology Research Network visit gerontology.uncg.edu

PHONE: 336-256-1020

Look forward to Spring semester 2014 GRN presentations about elder health issues by Sarah Laditka and end of life issues by Christine Davis, both of UNC-Charlotte.

Sponsored by the UNCG Gerontology Program
& the UNCG School of Health and Human Sciences.