

Declare NOW in Genie

M.S. in Gerontology !

Enjoy expansive job opportunities while shaping the workforce needed to support the Silver Tsunami — a doubling of the older adult population between now and 2030!

- 31 credit hours of course work and internship or research experiences
- For application deadlines and admission requirements, see the UNCG Guide to Graduate Admissions.
- In addition to materials required by The Graduate School, applicants must submit a personal essay elaborating on their experience or interest in working with older adults.

- Required Core Courses (22 hours)

GRO 501 Seminar: Critical Issues of Aging

GRO 600 Proseminar in Gerontology

KIN 601 Applying Research to Professional Practice or HHS 625 Research Methods for Health and Human Sciences or equivalent under advisement

KIN 610 Statistical Methods for Kinesiology or HEA 604 Public Health Statistics or ERM 517 Statistical Methods in Education or equivalent under advisement

GRO 621 Health and Aging

GRO 649 Gerontology Internship or Research Experience I

GRO 651 Integrative Seminar in Gerontology

GRO 679 Gerontology Internship or Research Experience II

- Electives (9 hours)

To meet the student's educational objectives, nine (9) hours are selected under advisement.

UNCG Gerontology Coordinator
Rebecca Adams, PhD
336-256-1020
r_adams@uncg.edu

UNCG
Gerontology